RG104 E-1 Box 148

LEVY'S DRY GOODS HOUSE.
150 Broad St
MITCHELL HOUSE CORNER.

Thomasville, Ga., 4 Oct 1887

Supt U.S. Mint
Phila Penn

Dear Sir,

Please send me, in exchange for the one I send, a new dime or the silver for the same before it is stamped. Would prefer the latter.

Trusting that you will accommodate me I am

Yours truly
J. Sloan Young.

Oct 8/87 Sent new dime
L. B.

RG104 E-1 Box 148

THOMASVILLE, GEORGIA.

THE "GARDEN CITY" OF THE SOUTH.

WHERE IS IT, AND WHAT IS IT?

Thomasville is two hundred miles Southwest of Savannah.
Less than twenty miles North of Jacksonville.
More than three hundred and fifty feet above sea level.
It is on the great Atlantic Coast Line Route from New York to New Orleans.
On the great "Monon" Short Route from Chicago, via Louisville, Montgomery, Albany, to Jacksonville.
The "Monon" Route makes close connection at Chicago for St. Paul, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.
Through Sleepers to and from Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville and Cincinnati.
Only thirty-two hours from New York, forty from Boston.
Thirty-eight hours from Chicago, thirty-one from St. Louis, thirty-one from Cincinnati, twenty-seven from Louisville.

Thomasville is the Great Sanitarium of the South.

In the midst of the finest pine belt in the world.
The drives in and around Thomasville are unrivaled.
Thomasville is a city of pleasant homes, bright flowers and sunny weather.
Thomasville has two of the finest hotels in the country.
All who have tried Thomasville are pleased with it.
All the leading physicians recommend Thomasville.

MEAN WINTER TEMPERATURE, 54.55°.
MEAN SPRING TEMPERATURE, 67.78°.
MEAN SUMMER TEMPEPATURE, 70.10°.

Thomasville's Pear Groves surpass the Orange Groves in beauty and profit.
If you are in search of health, come to Thomasville.
If you would escape the cold of the North, come to Thomasville.
If you want fine Quail shooting, come to Thomasville.
If you want rest from business, come to Thomasville.

RECEIVED OCT 7 1887 U. S. MINT, PHILA.

RG104 E-1 Box 148

1229

Thomasville, Ga.

Oct. 4. 1887

T. Sloan Young.

Wants new Dime in exchange for one enclosed.

Recd

Oct 8. 1887.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 148

[Abstract:] Wants new Dime in exchange for one enclosed.

Levy's Dry Goods House,
Thomasville, Ga.,
October 4, 1887

Supt. U.S. Mint
Phila, Penn.

Dear Sir,

Please send me, in exchange for the one I send, a new dime or the silver for the same before it is stamped. Would prefer the latter.

Trusting that you will accommodated me, I am

Yours Truly,
J. Sloan Young

[Noted in margins:]

Oct. 8 /87 sent new dime
L.B.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 148

[Enclosed pamphlet:]

Thomasville, Georgia.
The "Garden City" of the South.
Where is it, and what is it?

Thomasville is two hundred miles Southwest of Savannah.
Less than twenty miles North of Jacksonville.
More than three hundred and fifty feet above sea level.
It is on the great Atlantic Coast Line Route from New York to New Orleans.
On the great "Monon" Short Route from Chicago, via Louisville, Montgomery, Albany, to Jacksonville.
The "Monon" Route makes close connections at Chicago for St. Paul, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.
Through Sleepers to and from Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville and Cincinnati.
Only thirty-two hours from New York, forty from Boston.
Thirty-eight hours from Chicago, thirty-one from St. Louis, thirty-one from Cincinnati, twenty-seven from Louisville.

Thomasville is the Great Sanitarium of the South.

In the midst of the finest pine belt in the world.
The drives in and around Thomasville are unrivaled.
Thomasville is a city of pleasant homes, bright flowers and sunny weather.
Thomasville has two of the finest hotels in the country.
All who have tried Thomasville are pleased with it.
All the leading physicians recommend Thomasville.

Mean winter temperature, 54.55 degrees.
Mean spring temperature, 67.78 degrees.
Mean summer temperature, 70.10 degrees.

Thomasville's Pear Groves surpass the Orange Groves in beauty and profit.
If you are in search of health, come to Thomasville.
If you would escape the cold of the North, come to Thomasville.
If you want fine Quail shooting, come to Thomasville.
If you want rest from business, come to Thomasville.